Dogwood Flute Festival 2008
3562 Touchstone Drive
Maryville, TN 37801

What is the Dogwood Flute Festival?

It is a 1 day non-profit workshop and concert for all interested flute players who are playing at a strong intermediate level or above. It is hosted by Grace Notes Flute Choir Inc. of Maryville, Tennessee. The choir hosted a similar workshop in 2004 in Maryville with over 30 flutists in attendance. The response to the event was overwhelmingly positive and all agreed we should do it again in the future.

Festival musicians will start the day sight reading in 2 different sessions, attend a masterclass, enjoy a catered light dinner and later perform with the flute orchestra in a free concert for the public at 7:00pm. The concert will also feature solos by our guest artists and 2 additional flute ensembles: Trillium Flute Ensemble and the UTK Flute Choir.

The orchestra will feature a range of instruments including the C flute, piccolo, alto, bass and contra bass flute. The orchestra will be under the shared direction of Shelley Binder from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, and Roger Martin of Tennessee Technological University, Cookeville.

Visit St. Andrew's Church on the web for more detailed directions.
<http://www.saintandrewsmaryville.org>

Parking

Signs will be posted to identify the entrance to the Great Hall. Parking will be available across the street at the municipal building and across the street from the front of the church. There are also 2 free downtown parking lots approximately 1 block from the church on Broadway next to and across from the Tomato Head Restaurant.

Directions from Knoxville

Saint Andrew's is located in downtown Maryville. If you are travelling south from Knoxville on Alcoa Highway (U.S. 129), bear left at the highway split after you pass McGhee-Tyson Airport. Follow this street past Kroger's. At the foot of the Washington Street bridge turn right on Broadway. Go through two red lights and you'll see St. Andrew's on your left just past McCammon-Ammons Funeral Home.
